Make & Take Crafts

Stop in to enjoy free animal rock art (pictured left). You're also invited to make and take a wildlife mask that you can wear to or in the parade on Sunday. (See parade below.) Free

Saturday, October 9
3 p.m.

Meet an Animal: Historical Wildlife

Rob Catalano presents a family-friendly historical wildlife presentation, telling tales of the wildlife that roamed Bay when settlers arrived 200 years ago and relating them to some of our current wild animal residents. Live wildlife encounters included! Free

Sunday, October 10
2:30 p.m.

Bicentennial Parade

Look for our "wild ride," live animals and 100-foot python coming down the parade route. Want to march with us? Make a mask and join the fun! Free

Women's Board Dollhouse Raffle

Lake Erie Nature & Science Center's Women's Board invites you to support our nonprofit Center and earn a chance to win a beautiful, one-of-a-kind Bicentennial Dollhouse. Handcrafted dollhouse is on display and raffle tickets are available at the Center's Welcome Desk daily until the drawing on Sunday, October 10. Tickets are $1 each or 6 for $5. Winner will be notified by phone.

Our Mission: The nonprofit Lake Erie Nature & Science Center educates and inspires each of us to understand, appreciate and take responsibility for our natural universe.
