AIRFARE; CAVS FLOOR SEATS UP FOR GRABS AT LAKE ERIE NATURE & SCIENCE CENTER BENEFIT

Bay Village, Ohio – With a mounting list of exciting silent auction items and a pair of round-trip airline tickets up for grabs, the anticipation is growing for the September 15 safari-style party to benefit the non-profit Lake Erie Nature & Science Center. The theme for the Center's annual benefit, on Saturday, September 15, from 6:30 – 10 p.m., is "Survivor Africa," based on the popular television show.

The event gives nature and wildlife lovers a fun way to support Lake Erie Nature & Science Center, a west side gem, offering interactive classes, a world-class planetarium and up-close wildlife experiences that inspire appreciation of and responsibility for the natural universe. Although it's located in the Metroparks Huntington Reservation, the Center is a separate, non-profit entity that is not supported by tax dollars.

The gala evening will include dinner by "Arrabiata's", beer, wine and a signature drink and music by the popular local band, "OASIS." New and old friends of the Center will also venture on a safari treasure hunt and gather 'round the bonfire! Dress for the evening is safari-style with a cool prize for the most inspired attire!

A pair of exclusive floor seats to 'witness' the Cleveland Cavaliers play will be on the auction block, along with Indians and Browns tickets and a Cessna flight lesson. Also up for bid: 4 rounds of golf, ski rentals & lift tickets and two all-inclusive fishing expeditions. Spa treatments (from massage to make-up), sports memorabilia, a unique back-door Cleveland Zoo tour and stacks of gift certificates to premier area restaurants and attractions are also on the long and growing auction list.

In addition to the auction, a raffle will reward one lucky winner with two round-trip airline tickets; good for travel anywhere Continental Airlines flies in the US-48 contiguous states, Alaska, Canada, Caribbean, Mexico or Central America! Raffle tickets are $10 each. Tickets for the party are $50 per person in advance, $65 the night of the benefit.

For reservations and further information, please call 440-871-2900 or log onto the Center's new, interactive website at www.lensc.org.
