

Lake Erie Nature & Science Center

Second Nature

Lectures for the Life-Long Learner

THURSDAY,
DECEMBER 15
7-8:30 P.M.

BEES FOR ALL SEASONS

WITH LISZA CHRISTINE,
Apiary Inspector, Cuyahoga & Geauga Counties
The Center will be buzzing with talk about keeping bees for self sustainability – learn to maintain a hive throughout the four seasons and how to deal with raising young or disorganized colonies. Lisza will detail how we can provide honey bees with ideal living conditions so they have the highest chance for longevity and ultimately produce wax and honey for humans to harvest. Fee: $7/Adult*

THURSDAY,
JANUARY 12
7-8:30 P.M.

LAKE ERIE 101:

What Does the Future Hold for Our Great Lake?

WITH DR. JEFFREY REUTTER,
Director, Ohio Sea Grant College Program, OSU
Dr. Jeffrey Reutter will describe current programs and opportunities at the Ohio Sea Grant College Program and Stone Laboratory, Ohio's Lake Erie Laboratory on Gibraltar Island at Put-in-Bay and the oldest freshwater biological field station in the country. He will explain the way the Lake Erie ecosystem operates and discuss the most significant issues affecting the Lake now and in the future.
Fee: $7/Adult*

THURSDAY,
FEBRUARY 9
7-8:30 P.M.

GLORIFYING THE GROSS! Lessons Learned in the Recovery of the Lake Erie Watersnake

WITH KRISTIN STANFORD,
Lake Erie Watersnake Recovery Plan Coordinator
Kristin Stanford of the OSU Stone Laboratory will discuss her unique perspective as she and her team worked to save the Lake Erie Watersnake. With a focus on her outreach and education efforts, Kristin will detail how and why recovery was achieved so rapidly through an intensive proactive conservation campaign. Plus, get a glimpse of Kristin's appearance on the Discovery Channel's Dirty Jobs!
Fee: $7/Adult*
